- 25X1C 1. On the evenings of 25 and 26 September 1951, only some of the barracks buildings at Strausberg airfield were lighted. At 7 p.m., a green ground signal was fired but there was no flying activity. On 26 and 27 September, three twin-engine aircraft were observed in front of the hangar. There was no flying. A radio installation, consisting of a radio truck and a 12-meter mast braced on three sides, was observed west of the barracks buildings. The truck was no longer seen there at 5 p.m. on 27 September. [REDACTED]

- 25X1C 2. No construction was being done on the landing field and no incoming or outgoing construction material shipments were observed. A kernel was in the northeastern section of the field. [REDACTED]
